Procrastinators’ Programs SM

Professionalism -
Lawyers and Judges as Heroes in the 21st Century

Bobby J. Delise
Delise & Hall

Course Number: 0200141230
1 Hour of Professionalism CLE

December 30, 2014
9:00 – 10:00 a.m.
Bobby J. Delise
Delise and Hall
7924 Maple Street
New Orleans, LA  70118

Bobby J. Delise, attorney, is a native of New Orleans (born 1954) and is a founding partner of the New Orleans based law firm Delise and Hall.

Mr. Delise's primary area of concentration is the representation professional seamen worldwide. In addition to his litigation practice Mr. Delise has engaged in the representation of individuals and enterprises in international and commercial litigation and contracts.

Mr. Delise received his Juris Doctor (J.D.) from Loyola University School of Law in 1979, a Master of Laws (LLM) from Tulane University School of Law in 1990 and his Bachelor of Science from Louisiana State University in 1976. In 1977 Mr. Delise was awarded the Brendan F. Brown Award for his academic achievement in the study of Jurisprudence as a student of Loyola Law School.

Mr. Delise has held the Martindale-Hubbell’s highest (AV) rating for a number of years.

Mr. Delise was admitted to the Louisiana State Bar Association in 1979 and the Texas State Bar and Colorado State Bar Associations in 1998. He is in good standing with all three associations.

He has been admitted pro hac vice in numerous Federal and State Courts all throughout the United States. Mr. Delise holds membership in the American Association for Justice, The Louisiana Association for Justice and The Federal Bar Association.

In 2005 Mr. Delise helped form, as charter member, the A.P. Tureaud American Inn of Court in New Orleans. He is also a member of the Saint Thomas More Inn of Court.

He has been visiting skills professor at Loyola Law School teaching law students Negotiations, Trial Techniques, Professionalism and Motion Practice since 1990. He has lectured on Diving Law and safety within the commercial diving community at several of the leading commercial diving schools throughout the United States.

Mr. Delise is the present member and past Chairman of the Committee on the Profession and presently sits as member on Rules of Professional Conduct Committee of the Louisiana State Bar Association. He has been published and lectured extensively on Professionalism and Ethics within in the legal profession. Mr. Delise was awarded the Louisiana State Bar Association’s President’s award in 2006.

Mr. Delise is married to Christine Delise (married in 1984) and is the father to their children Jeannette Monet Delise (age 21) and Christian Anthony Delise (age 29).