

Important Tax Changes Impacting LA Nonprofits LA Legislative Update Wednesday, April 20, 2016

Join David Hansen and Emily Toler, attorneys with the Policy Services Division of the Louisiana Department of Revenue, for a presentation on new Louisiana laws following the 2016 first Special Session. Mr. Hansen and Ms. Toler will cover the impact of the new sales and use tax laws, many of which impact nonprofits (some for the first time), including information organizations need to remain compliant as many of the new laws took effect April 1, 2016 and will change again on July 1, 2016.

- Sales and Use Tax Changes in the new legislation including when taxes must be collected, and applicable rates, on dues, sales of tangible personal property, and tickets and admissions, as well as other critical updates
- How to Register for Compliance and general information on reporting requirements and new vendor compensation rules
- Consequences of Noncompliance, including the extent to which nonprofits can become liable for mistakes in complying with the new law, such as assessments of tax, penalties and interest
- Answers to Commonly Asked Questions - submit your questions for the Louisiana Department of Revenue (LDR) to moderator, Jaye Calhoun, McGlinchey Stafford, PLLC, and NOBA Tax Law Chair, jcalhoun@mcglinchey.com by April 14th.

Time: Registration: 11:30 – noon; Program: Noon – 1 pm; Questions: 1 – 1:30 pm

Location: Pan-American Life Conference Center
601 Poydras St., 11th Floor Auditorium, New Orleans, LA 70130

CLE/CPE: 1.5 hours of CLE credit and 1.5 hours of CPE credit

Cost: Free (registration is REQUIRED)

To Register: Contact NOBA at 525-7453 or email agaron@neworleansbar.org

To Submit Questions: Email Jaye Calhoun at jcalhoun@mcglinchey.com by April 14th.

Sponsored by: the New Orleans Bar Association and the New Orleans Bar Foundation with Pan-American Life Conference Center, VIA LINK, Junior League of New Orleans, Louisiana Association of Nonprofit Organizations, United Way of Southeast Louisiana and Society of Louisiana Certified Public Accountants.

Pan-American Life Conference Center

